

Iditarod

Activities and Films celebrating the Last Great Race on Earth

Press Release:

Alaska Public Lands Information Center will be open extra hours on Saturday March 1st in celebration of the Iditarod. Located near the start of the race at 605 West 4th Avenue, the Center is a great place to warm up while browsing through the exhibits or watching scheduled programs. Call 271-2737 for further information.

Family Activities and Iditarod Film Celebration

Saturday March 1st

- |       |  |
|-------|--|
| 11:00 | Make a Snowflake and Dog Origami             |
| Noon  | Season of the Sled Dog (35 minute movie)     |
| 1:00  | The Lorax - A prelude to Dr Suess Day        |
| 2:00  | Winter Patrol (25 minute movie)              |
| 3:00  | Reading of Togo, Heroic Dog of the Serum Run |

"A History of Man and Dog"
a special exhibit from Denali National Park

Hot Dog Mike will be open March 1st in front of the building

